GENERAL CAST NOTES

- Things are really starting to come together!! Yay!!!!
- Tickets will go on sale this month. We hope to have a volunteer from our fantastic group of parents selling tickets at the beginning of each rehearsal for parents who'd like to grab them while they are already in the building– tickets are also available online and we will be sending out the link to purchase SOON! A Facebook event will be created shortly as well and we encourage everyone to share, share, share with their friends and family.
- As we head into the month before show time, please keep in mind that rehearsal attendance is more important than ever. Thanks for being such a fantastic group so far, your dedication to rehearsals and the show has been apparent! As a direct result, we are ahead of schedule and on track to produce an AMAZING show! 😊
